Summary

Experienced Data Engineer and Python Developer with 16 years of expertise in building scalable data solutions and optimizing performance. Specialized in Python, SQL, and Google Cloud Platform (GCP), with hands-on experience in designing data pipelines using Apache Airflow and managing large-scale datasets in BigQuery, MySQL, and Teradata. Strong focus on system design, database optimization, and performance tuning to improve efficiency.

Proficient in code quality and best practices, with experience conducting detailed code reviews across Python, SQL, and Shell scripting. Skilled in implementing monitoring and automation strategies using Prometheus and Grafana to enhance system reliability. While primarily experienced in GCP, open to exploring Azure services such as Blob Storage, Functions, and Event Hubs.

Passionate about hands-on development, preferring technical problem-solving over leadership roles.
